Attendance Award-

Due to COVID-19, the newly created award for classified employees must be suspended for the 2020-2021 School Year. The district will review the ability to re-enact the 2019-2020 created awards scheduled for classified employees at the end of the 20-21 school year.

Purpose: To encourage and emphasize the importance of employee's daily attention to the assigned tasks of their job.

Eligible Employees: Categories of certified and classified employees are eligible:

- Regular full time and part-time certified employees
- Regular full time and part-time classified employees
- School and district level administrators are not eligible

Criteria:

- Employees must have been employed during the first pay period of the school year and remained employed for the contracted year with no breaks in service.
- An employee must have no more than one day of sick or personal leave charged to him/her during periods when school is in session during the current school year.
- Eligibility continues if an employee misses several hours on different days as long as the total hours missed does not exceed one working day.
- Eligible twelve month employees must not have absences charged to annual leave or sick leave during the regular 180 day school term.
- Classified and certified employees must be rated at the effective or higher level on the district performance appraisal.
- Eligible employees must be recommended for rehire.

Selection Process: A determination of eligibility is made from a review of leave records each year in May.

Award Schedule: Once annually. Presentations are made in the last paycheck received for the year. A determination of eligible employees is made after the May or June payroll is submitted.

Award: Monetary based on the following scale:

- One (1) hour or less - $100.00
- More than one (1) hour to one (1) working day -$75.00

- Interpersonal Skills - Demonstrates exemplary interpersonal skills in communicating with students, parents, and the community and in collaboration with other professionals.
- Caring and Respect – Possess a strong commitment to creating a climate of caring and respect conducive to effective teaching and learning.

School Level Teacher of the Year

Selection Process: School Level Teachers of the Year will be selected in December of each school year according to the following guidelines:

- Members of the instructional staff of each school/program will nominate candidates by submitting their names to the appropriate administrator by a designated date.
- The school administrator will distribute application forms to these nominees.
- Each nominee who submits a completed application does so with the understanding that if selected as their school's Teacher of the Year, he/she must represent the school in the district competition
- Completed forms will be copied and distributed to all faculty members for careful consideration before a vote is taken.
- Voting will take place during a faculty meeting or in a secured location on ballots provided.
- A run-off vote will be taken on the three teachers with the most votes if there are more than five teachers nominated.
- If no more than five (5) teachers are nominated, there will be only one vote.
- The teacher with the most votes during the second phase (if needed) becomes the School Level Teacher of the Year. In the case of a tie, a run-off vote will be taken.

District Level Teacher of the Year

Eligible Employees: Candidates for The District Level Teacher of the Year are the School Level Teachers of the Year. Each school within the district will have one representative except the PreK, Adult Ed, Dropout Prevention Programs, and District Professionals which will share a representative. There will be a total of eight candidates.

Selection Process: During the month of January each School Level Teacher of the Year will complete and submit an application and will be interviewed by a panel of judges. Completed applications will be read and scored by judges from outside the district who will also conduct the interviews. During the interview, each candidate will be asked to respond to the same list of questions. The scores of all judges from the application and the interview will be combined and the teacher with the highest score will be the District Teacher of the Year.

Special Instructions for WEC and Other Professionals

Eligible Employees: Wakulla Pre-K, District ESE/Student Services Professionals, Reading Coaches and Wakulla Institute Teachers – In order to allow all professionals who, work directly with children to be nominated, these sites will follow a given rotation schedule.
